August 2022

Beloved Sisters and Brothers in the Lord,

We are beginning the month of August, and it is the month that we commemorate our church's NAMEDAY. This year however is a very special year because we are celebrating the 90th anniversary of our church. It is a monumental commemoration that shows the love and the dedication of our founders, and also the continued unwavering strength of all of you, our beloved parishioners. I commend all of you who tirelessly and selflessly give of your time, your talents, and your treasures to our beautiful church here in Galveston. I also warmly invite all of you to plan to join us for our annual NAMEDAY dinner on Saturday evening, August 20, 2022. It is sure to be and a blessed evening with great Christian fellowship and delicious cuisine.

We are blessed to celebrate this year with the following services, and I warmly invite all of you to join us in worship on these special days.

Wednesday, August 3, 2022, at 6pm – The Small Paraclesis Service

Friday, August 5, 2022, at 6pm - The Small Paraclesis Service

Saturday, August 6, 2022, at 9am - Divine Liturgy – The Transfiguration of Our Lord

Wednesday, August 10, 2022, at 6pm – The Small Paraclesis Service

Friday, August 12, 2022, at 6pm - The Small Paraclesis Service

Sunday, August 14, 2022, at 6pm – Great Vespers of The Falling Asleep of The Theotokos

Monday, August 15, 2022, at 9am – Divine Liturgy for the Falling Asleep of The Theotokos

I look forward to seeing you on these special days in our church's calendar. I thank all of you for the love and concern that you have for our church in the past and also in the coming month. Have a Blessed month!

Your Brother in The Lord,

Rev. Stelios N. Sitaras
